About UCPD Mission Statement

The University of California Police Department, Berkeley, provides high-quality, professional crime prevention, protection, and law enforcement services to maintain and promote human safety and the security of property for the Berkeley campus and its associated locations. The department facilitates the achievement of the academic, research, and public service missions of the University through its safety and security programs, the protection of individual rights, and reducing fear of crime. This is accomplished through the direct provision of traditional law enforcement and emergency services and the design and delivery of proactive educational outreach and crime prevention programs for a broad and diverse campus community. UCPD provides these services, develops its programs, and trains its sworn and civilian staff with sensitivity to the unique concerns of the University and Berkeley community.

UC Berkeley's Main Security Provisions

Campus Patrols

The UC Police use uniformed and non-uniformed officers to patrol the campus by car, bicycle, motorcycle, and foot 24 hours a day. UCPD officers conduct these patrols on the roadways and walkways of the campus, as well as in buildings.

Emergency "Blue Light" Telephones

Emergency telephones can be identified by a blue light. Freestanding phone systems, in tall dark columns or yellow phone boxes, are topped with a blue light which remains lit at all times. The campus has installed telephone units on the main campus, outlying parking areas, and other off-campus locations. Most elevators are equipped with emergency telephones on the wall of the elevator cab.

Pushing the red button on the panel will automatically connect directly to the UC Police Department.

See the UCPD Campus Map for Blue Light phone locations, and best nighttime walking route, online or at I Sproul Hall.

9-1-1 on Campus

Dialing 9-1-1 from any landline phone on campus property, including a pay phone, will connect immediately to UCPD emergency assistance and will identify the caller's location. No coins are needed for a 9-1-1 call. From a cell phone on or near campus, dial (510) 642-3333 for a direct emergency-connection to UCPD dispatch.

Community Service Officer (CSO) Program

UCPD's CSO Program employs a diverse group of University of California students who strengthen UCPD's outreach to the campus community and help to deter crime by providing Bear-WALK walking escort at night, and conducting high-visibility, uniformed evening patrol of campus areas that include, but are not limited to, the student residential facilities, the central campus, and the Berkeley hills east of the campus.

Newly hired CSOs diligently train to learn the required police codes, campus geography and proven techniques for safety when walking with others at night.

Candidates are hired every semester. Pay begins at $11.90 per hour.

assigned locations both on and off the central campus. SPOs act as additional “eyes and ears” for both UC Police and law enforcement agencies that share jurisdiction of off-campus UC facilities. Some SPOs have professional training in crime scene videography, field evidence collection and crime scene identification.

SPOs also supply occasional security, traffic, and crowd control for sporting events, concerts, social events, demonstrations, and campus-wide emergencies.

Residence Hall Security

The residence halls are locked 24 hours a day, with entry controlled by a mechanical and/or card key system. A UCPD Residence Sergeant supervises all security activity in UC residence halls, communicating on a daily basis with Residential Directors. Community Service Officers (CSOs), trained student employees of UCPD, patrol the residence halls during the evening hours, while Residential Student Service Programs (RSSP) employs student residents both as Security Coordinators, who coordinate safety and security education events, and Security Monitors, who observe and track access of residents and guests to the halls.

UCPD officers designated as Residential Student Liasons (RSLs) give safety presentations and provide students with information and assistance throughout the academic year.

Missing Student Notification for Students Residing in On-campus Student Housing Facilities:

The welfare of those students who reside in “on-campus student housing facilities”* is of utmost importance to UC Berkeley, and UCPD works closely with RSSP, International House, and the Berkeley Student Cooperative (with regards to Cloyne Court, The Convent, Fenwick-Weavers, and Rochdale Village) to respond without delay per the UCPD General Order on Missing Person Reports should any of these housing authorities become aware that a residential student is missing.

* Under this section, “an on-campus student housing facility” is defined by the Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315) as “any student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution, and is within the reasonably contiguous geographic area that makes up the campus.”

UCPD's Outreach Programs and Publications Strategies

UCPD has a variety of community outreach programs designed to increase awareness of safety issues and promote safe behavior.

C Presentations

Each year, UC Police officers regularly make safety presentations at orientations for both students and staff. Either campus members or organizations can contact UCPD throughout the year to request a workshop or presentation.

The Crime Prevention Unit (CPU) gives presentations and workshops which focus on how to prevent theft or violence at home, at school, or on the job.

The Threat Management Unit (TMU), often in conjunction with CARE Services at University Health Services (UHS), gives safety presentations on ways to address threats such as stalking, intimidation, domestic violence and harrasing communications.

The Residence Sergeant can be contacted to request presentations on safety and security in campus residence halls or family housing.

If you have questions about how you can arrange a presentation, call any of these offices.

C Publications & Websites

UCPD keeps keep the community apprised of news affecting campus security and personal safety through a variety of publications, both web and print. Publications include this annual security report, campus maps, posters, crime alerts, and bulletins. Print flyers and brochures are available in UCPD's lobby (1 Sproul Hall), at the UCPD table at many campus information events, and in other campus departments and libraries.

UCPD's website delivers these publications online, and provides the campus community with timely alerts of criminal activity, a daily log of all police activity, information about safety programs and services, and department news.

UCPD safety news and its crime alerts can also be found on Facebook (/UCPDCal) and Twitter (UCPD_Cal).

C How We Inform the Campus Community of Crime

UCPD makes timely reports, called Crime Alerts, of recent crimes that may affect the quality of life in the greater campus area. The alerts are intended to motivate use of personal safety strategies. UCPD makes every effort to issue Crime Alerts within 24 hours of the occurrence of the crime (by the next business day), however, it sometimes takes longer to confirm all pertinent information.

Crime Alerts are delivered via

- UCPD website
- UCB Police News (join ucb_police_news) campus email list serve
- Printed flyers posted in public areas
- Twitter.com/UCPD_Cal or Facebook.com/UCPDCal

The Daily Activity Bulletin, a log of all police activity, is made each day and posted online. An archive of the log covers two years prior to the current year. The most recent 90 days of daily activity is available for public inspection during normal business hours.

Major Campus Emergency Notification

WarnMe, UC Berkeley's alerting and warning service, will proactively contact faculty, staff and student subscribers to warn of situations on or near campus that may pose immediate threats. It will provide urgent and important information and instructions in case of emergency. WarnMe is an opt-in service. Campus community members must visit warnme.berkeley.edu to activate the service and provide their contact information, specifying whether they would like to be alerted by phone (cell, home, office, TTY) or via text message or e-mail.

The campus will only activate the system in the event of an immediate threat to safety, or in a serious emergency. All personal information submitted remains private.

WarnMe, and all components of the campus Alerting and Warning System (AWS), can be activated by personnel from UCPD, Office of Emergency Preparedness and Public Affairs.

An exercise to test the Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) and its implementing procedures is conducted annually and an After Action Report, identifying Lessons Learned, is prepared and circulated throughout campus. See page 13 for more information about the Alerting and Warning System (AWS).

UCPD Services

Business Services

Contact the Records Unit or come to the front counter at I Sproul Hall during business hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m. M–F) for more information or to arrange for these services. Any applicable fees may be paid by cash, check or credit card. Fees are subject to change.

LETTERS OF GOOD STANDING

Letters of good standing are verifications that you do not have a criminal history with UCPD. Letters are available 5–10 days after receipt of request. The cost is $12.

POLICE REPORT COPIES

You may request copies of a police report or report verifications (depending on the legal right to the report). The cost is $10, but reports are free to victims and UC departments, and will be available within 10 days. Photo identification is required to pick up all report copies.

FINGERPRINTING

UCPD does fingerprinting (LiveScan background checks) on a limited basis. Call for cost and details.

ENGRAVER CHECK-OUT

UCPD will loan an engraver for marking personal and University property. Engraving laptops, or major components of bicycles with Driver's License or State ID# may increase the likelihood of recovery. Loan is free of charge.

Public Services

LOST & FOUND

UCPD is the central repository for lost and found on the Berkeley Campus. Items collected are kept for 90 days then disposed of. UCPD has an online system that catalogs and displays items we have found and allows you to notify us of a lost item. You may also come to I Sproul Hall to ask if your item has been found. UC Berkeley's Lost and Found, police.berkeley.edu/lostnfound/

BIKE LICENSING

UCPD regularly offers free bike licensing. Its the law in California, and the City of Berkeley. Check our website at police.berkeley.edu/bike for current schedule.

SPECIAL EVENTS & ALCOHOL PERMITS

Forms to be used for the notification of special events on campus at which alcohol will be served may be obtained from the Special Event Coordinator at UCPD. Completed forms must be submitted to the Coordinator at least seven (7) working days before the event.

PAYING PARKING CITATIONS

Citations are issued by UC Berkeley Parking Enforcement, Parking & Transportation 2150 Kittredge (510) 642-2500. Send an appeal to ucappeal@berkeley.edu. For more info see pt.berkeley.edu/pay/

Service for Campus Departments Only CAMPUS BUILDING AND ALARM & CARDKEY SYSTEMS

Building access on campus is controlled by the UC Police Department and governed by the Campus Access Control Policy (CACP). To establish access for authorized personnel or get assistance with either your alarm system or CyberKey system, contact the Crime Prevention Unit at (510) 643-8988. Departments should request an architectural review for new systems if planning a remodel or new construction.

Feedback on UCPD Service

We always welcome your thoughts, concerns, comments, or suggestions for improvement to our service. Contact us at the station, email us or use the online feedback forms at police.berkeley.edu/about_UCPD/feedback.html.

For personnel complaint procedures, see the Rules & Policies Chapter.

This is Bear Territory

UCPD works closely with members of the community, other University departments, and local and state law enforcement agencies to prevent crime through its integrated community-involved policing. Your awareness of safety issues on campus, and your proactive efforts to keep yourself and others safe, can make a difference. Here you will learn more about your role in the campuswide coordination that goes toward keeping the campus safe.

Report Crime

Why Report? If you are the victim of a crime, witness a criminal incident, or become aware of a potential threat on campus, you should inform UCPD immediately. Prompt reporting is an integral part of crime prevention and will help the police to address the issue quickly, and reduce the risk of further harm.

Additionally, when you make your report, you assist UCPD in our effort to maintain accurate records of the incidence of crime on campus, which let us work better to keep the campus safe.

About Jurisdiction: The University of California Police Department is the primary agency for reporting and investigating all crimes and incidents that occur on UC Berkeley-owned or -leased property. Any instances of criminal activity occurring on campus, including residence halls, should be reported to UCPD. (Reports can also be made through other offices. See page 26, 32.)

Although you are strongly encouraged to report all crimes and incidents to the UC Police Department, other offices, including the Chancellor's Office, Ombuds Office, and Office of Student Life, can also take your report. Crimes and incidents occurring at non-University properties should be reported to the appropriate local law enforcement agency, as they have primary responsibility for taking reports and handling calls for service there. UCPD dispatch can refer you to the best agency to help you.

How to Report an Emergency: 911 To report crimes that are in progress, an imminent threat to life or property, or for an immediate medical concern, contact UCPD's emergency dispatch center for emergency services. Dial 9-1-1 from any landline phone. If you are on or near campus, on the cell phone, call (510) 642-3333. If you use an emergency blue light phone, UCPD dispatch will know your location and send help.

In the City of Berkeley, the best emergency number to dial from a cell phone is (510) 981-5911.

Non-Emergency Calls 24/7 and How to Report Other Crime: To report a crime that is not in progress, or for general information or civil advice, call UCPD at (510) 642-6760. UCPD has personnel available at these numbers 24 hours a day, every day of the year. Or use CalTIP, our anonymous tip service, to report suspicious persons or activity.

C CalTIP (Anonymous Crime Tip Service)

Do you have information concerning a crime that has already occurred or an ongoing crime problem in and around campus? You can send it to UCPD anonymously using the encrypted tip service powered by TipNow™ technology. Keep in mind, the CalTIP system is not a substitute for a 911 call and is not intended for in-progress crimes or emergencies.

Safety in UC Berkeley Hiring Procedures

Fingerprinting and LiveScan Criminal Background Check

To protect the campus community and its assets, the University needs to ensure that individuals assigned to certain campus positions have no history of criminal behavior relevant to their employment. Hiring departments on campus may work with UCPD to complete background checks for employees in sensitive positions. See more at police.berkeley.edu/programsandservices/CBC/

Address Threatening or Potentially Violent Behavior

In September 2007, Chancellor Robert J. Birgeneau affirmed this policy statement, “Each one of us shares the responsibility for creating and maintaining a community in which we can work together in an atmosphere of respect and civility toward each other, free of all forms of harassing and threatening behaviors. University policies are designed to protect and promote the rights of members of the campus community, and to prevent interference with functions that carry out the University’s mission.

“Any threat or violent act by any student, staff, academic, or community member will be considered serious misconduct and may be the basis for disciplinary action or dismissal, and will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Supervisors and managers have the responsibility to take seriously any reported threats and, if necessary, to seek appropriate assistance.”

Working Together

The Behavior Risk Assessment Team

To prevent the escalation of threats and violent incidents, the University has established the Behavior Risk Assessment Team (BRAT), composed of several campus units, each with personnel having special expertise and professional training. Working together, these units systematically assess and address behavior perceived as disruptive, intimidating, threatening, or violent. Such behavior includes actions or statements by a student, staff, academic, or community member that expresses intent to inflict harm on an individual or property.

The team has been formed to augment existing systems, and convenes when individual service departments don't have adequate resources to respond alone to a situation. The assessment team helps clarify the management of situations (including legal and psychological issues), coordinates communication internally and externally, and monitors resolution of situations.

UCPD Threat Management Unit

UCPD's Threat Management Unit (TMU) is the law enforcement component of the Behavior Risk Assessment Team. The Threat Management Unit assists University affiliates in dealing with cases of threatening, harassing, or aberrant behavior. It investigates, assesses, and manages such incidents. The Threat Management Unit, in conjunction with CARE Services, gives safety presentations and educates and advises on how to recognize and report behavior that could lead to violence.

Steps You Should Take to Respond

Do not ignore or downplay even indirect threats, as they could escalate into serious incidents. If you are the victim of a threat, report the incident to the police, and to your supervisor, academic advisor, or another University representative. These supervisors and advisors should take immediate steps to ensure your safety and address the problem behavior. The police may take a report, or arrest the responsible individual if a crime has been committed.

If you believe that you may need help assessing a special situation, contact the following assessment team members and ask for civil advice:

- UC Police Department (510) 642-6760
- University Health Services (510) 642-6621

If a situation involves primarily student behavior, call

- Dean of Student Life (510) 642-6770.

If primarily staff/faculty behavior, call

- Manager, Employee Relations Unit, Human Resources (510) 642-7163.

Get a Plan

Campus departments should have a plan for educating their students, faculty, and staff and for responding to violent or potentially violent incidents. The Threat Management Unit is available to help you develop your plan and answer any other questions.

C Theft Prevention In Campus Buildings

According to campus policy, UCPD maintains control of access to all campus facilities, monitors the issuance of keys and administers alarm systems. It is important to understand, however, that the Berkeley campus is generally open to the public. Theft is the most common crime on the Berkeley campus. Over $100,000 worth of University property and equipment is stolen from the Berkeley campus each year. Wallet, purse, laptop and backpack theft make up a large percentage of personal property theft. Most thefts occur during the daylight hours, and in 80% of reported thefts and burglaries, thieves enter the structure, and/or office, without forced entry. To address this, UCPD actively promotes the practice of community crime prevention with many programs and campaigns developed to help you recognize your own vulnerability to crime, to educate about preventive actions and to encourage communication with UC Police. By far, the most effective thing you can do to reduce the likelihood of crime is to develop a strong sense of community with others at your residence, living group, or office. Exchange information about your schedules and watch your neighbors' houses, rooms, and work areas. Report suspicious activities to one another and to the police.

The Campus Access Control Policy is available to view at police.berkeley.edu.

Keep Residence Halls Safe

The residence halls are locked 24 hours a day, with entry controlled by a mechanical and/or card key system, but UCPD encourages students to take personal responsibility for keeping everyone they live with safe. Here are a few tips for discouraging would-be thieves in your residence hall.

- Help be sure outside doors are closed and locked.
- Keep your room locked, especially when you are out during move-in.
- Lock your room door and windows when you leave, even if only for a minute, and take your keys with you.
- Keep small valuable items out of sight, in a closed drawer or another place out of common view.
- Do not leave coats, books, or other valuable items in common areas. Keep them in your room.
- Do not leave your car unlocked when loading or unloading.
- Ask strangers to wait in common areas while their friends are summoned.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBORS

BY FAR, THE MOST EFFECTIVE THING YOU CAN DO TO REDUCE THE LIKELIHOOD OF CRIME IS TO DEVELOP A STRONG SENSE OF COMMUNITY WITH OTHERS AT YOUR RESIDENCE, LIVING GROUP, OR OFFICE.

Crime Prevention Services

UCPD's Security Surveys

Is your residence or office relatively safe from burglary and break-in? Contact UCPD's Crime Prevention Unit for a Security Survey and an officer will meet with you to identify areas in your home or office that may need security improvement. They can show you how to safeguard your building or office against unlawful entry and theft and advise on how to start a Building Watch program.

Building Watch Officer Program

The Building Watch Officer Program is an application of the neighborhood watch model to a university setting. The program seeks encourage communication between the Police Department and campus members who regularly work or live on campus property, to facilitate services that are building-specific and appropriate, and increase resident awareness. In over 70 campus buildings, Building Watch Officers

- Make regular visits to participating buildings in order to provide a visible police presence and stay familiar with building users and building issues
- Work with Building Coordi-inators by email to review incidents and crime trends and recommend risk reduction measures

- Distribute safety education materials to the building
- Coordinate crime prevention presentations and/or informal Q&A sessions for building occupants

What to Do In An Emergency

Read this section for an overview on ways to Prepare, Protect & Respond to an emergency, such as an earthquake or active shooter incident. For extensive information on emergency preparedness, go to the campus's Office of Emergency Preparedness website.

Stay informed in an Emergency

The University of California, Berkeley has a plan for communicating with the campus population that will be activated during an emergency. Its Alerting & Warning System (AWS) is a network of sirens and communications outlets that will allow the campus community to find out what to do in the case of a major emergency or disaster.

Set up WarnMe now

If you are new to UC Berkeley, or if you haven't had the chance to set it up yet, be sure to opt in to WarnMe, UC Berkeley's alerting and warning service. When you opt in, you can set up the service to send a message and warn you of situations on or near campus that may pose immediate threats to your safety. Messages sent by WarnMe will provide urgent information and instructions on how to respond to an emergency situation. You can specify that messages be sent to your phone (cell, home, office, TTY), by text message, or e-mail—you let us know how best to reach you. WarnMe is an opt-in service. In order to receive emergency warnings, you MUST sign up at warnme.berkeley.edu.

Please remain in the Shelter-Shut-Listen mode for news and updates about the situation, and instructions on what to do next.

Tell Others You're “Safe and Well”

The Red Cross hosts a virtual bulletin board that will enable individuals to report their locations and leave messages for concerned family members and friends during and after an emergency. The Red Cross “Safe and Well” website is safeandwell.communityos.org.

Prepare for An Earthquake

The Hayward fault passes through the eastern side of campus and geologists estimate that an earthquake on that fault is highly probable within the next 20 years. After any disaster, emergency resources can be quickly overwhelmed, so the campus community must be prepared to be self-sufficient until outside help arrives, perhaps for up to 5 days. Each individual should prepare his or her family, home, and workplace for this eventuality.

Learn How to Evacuate

Learn evacuation routes, and participate in evacuation drills in your home and other buildings you use frequently. Look inside the entrance to your building for the poster showing the Emergency Assembly Area (EAA) for your campus building.

Evacuation and Disability

Everyone should be aware of the needs of people with disabilities and learn how to offer assistance. If you are disabled, make a plan in advance that includes how you will direct any volunteer rescue attempt on your behalf. Know where you can shelter safely in buildings where you spend a lot of time. Learn more at oep.berkeley.edu/emergency/evacuating and find “Evacuation Procedures for People with Disabilities.” Or get help with a plan from Disability Access Services at access.berkeley.edu

Make your home or office safer

Remove heavy objects from top shelves or above where you sit or sleep. Have tall bookcases and furniture bolted to the wall. Secure computers and TVs to desks, and restrain books on shelves. Make sure large objects will not tip over and block your exit.

Put together emergency kits

Include a flashlight and spare batteries, a three-day supply of food, water, and prescription medicines, extra prescription glasses, contact lenses and solution, a first-aid kit, a wind-up, solar, or battery-powered AM/FM radio (and extra batteries), durable and comfortable shoes, blankets or coats, leather work gloves, a whistle, money, and out-of-state emergency contact numbers.

Prepare to help others

- Take first-aid and CPR training courses
- Train to become a member of a campus-wide disaster volunteer organization as a search and rescue, first-aid, or shelter worker.

“Duck, Cover and Hold!”

When an earthquake occurs, “Duck”— Get under a sturdy object, or crouch down next to a wall. “Cover”— Protect your head and neck with your arms. Avoid windows, bookcases, and heavy objects that could fall. “Hold”— Stay under cover until the shaking stops, then evacuate the building. Watch out for falling glass, plaster, light fixtures, bricks, and other debris. Once outside, move to an open area (your EAA) away from trees, buildings, electrical poles, and wires.

“Tools to Survive an Active Shooter”

If you witness any armed individual on campus at any time, immediately call UCPD to report the emergency. Use common sense. If hiding or escaping from danger is impossible, you should remain quiet, but we encourage you to DO SOMETHING!

About Fleeing

If it is possible to flee the area safely and avoid danger, do so.

If it is safe to do so, consider:

- Escaping out of the other side of the building.
- Moving to a central and secure area within the building.

In case you must flee, do not go to the normal gathering site for your building. Instead, get far away from the shooting scene and then contact the Police Department to notify of your location. Do not attempt to flee if the shooter is between you and your escape. If you are unsure, do not attempt to flee.

About Hiding in Place

If it is not possible to flee the area safely:

- Go dark. Turn off all the lights.
- Lock all windows and doors and secure yourself in your space.
- Get everyone down on the floor or under a desk and out of the line of fire and remain silent.

About Notifying Others

- Attempt to get the word out to others in your building or nearby if possible.
- Dial 9-1-1 (510/642-3333 via cell) to notify police and give your location, if that seems practical.
- Do not pull the fire alarm. It will provide the shooter with more opportunities to cause harm.

If the shooter comes into your room or office

There is no one procedure can be recommended in this situation.

- Attempting to negotiate with the individual may be very dangerous.
- Attempting to overcome the individual with force is a last resort that should only be initiated in the most extreme circumstances, but, again, DO SOMETHING!

“All-Clear”?

Wait for the “all-clear” instruction given by an authorized or known voice. If the staff or students do not recognize the voice that is giving instruction, they should not change their status.

- Unknown or unfamiliar voices may be giving false assurances.
- Remember, there may be more than one active shooter.

After a Valid “All-Clear”

Follow the direction of Police Officers as you leave the building.

- Police may direct you to one collection point.
- When encountering Police Officers, keep your hands on your head or open in front of you. Officers are trained to be aware of all possible dangers and need to see quickly that you are not a threat.
- Be careful not to make any changes to the scene of the incident since law enforcement authorities will investigate the area later.

In case of other threats

Bomb Threat

In case of evacuation, take personal belongings. Leave doors and windows open; do not turn light switches on or off. Check work area for unfamiliar items. Do not touch a suspicious item; move away from the object.

Release of Hazardous Materials

If you do not have training on how to handle the material, move away from the site of the hazard to a safe location, then call the UC Police, who will contact Environment, Health & Safety (EH&S). Follow the directions of professional emergency responders.

Fire

Fire safety is everyone's responsibility and your preparation, awareness and response to fire can save lives and valuable property. If you attend classes, work, or live on campus, you must follow all fire safety regulations set by the State as well as all Campus fire safety rules.

What to do to prevent fire

Follow these guidelines for how to live safely in your residence, private or affiliated. If you live in an off-campus privately owned rental unit or apartment, do not assume your safety is anyone else's chief concern. It is up to you to know how to escape a fire successfully and evaluate your home for basic fire safety.

Smoke Detectors/Smoke Alarms Save Lives

In California, state laws require smoke detectors/smoke alarms in all dormitory rooms, apartments and dwelling units that are used for sleeping. A smoke detector's alarm must be audible in the sleeping areas, so detectors should be mounted in each bedroom as well as on the ceilings or walls at points centrally located between the sleeping areas and the rest of the dwelling unit.

Check, Inspect and Maintain Smoke Detectors/Smoke Alarms

Smoke detectors, smoke alarms and fire alarm systems must also be inspected, tested, and maintained regularly per state regulations.

- Test the detector monthly. Most smoke detectors/smoke alarms have a test button. Push it to sound the alarm.
- If the smoke detector/smoke alarm has a battery, it should be replaced annually. Try doing it at the same time you set your clocks for daylight savings time!
- Chirping indicates a low battery. If you hear the sound for a few seconds every so often, replace the batteries.

Know Your Exits and Keep Clear

It is important to have more than one exit from the building. Map out a second exit that can be used in case the main door is made impassible. Check all of the doors which lead to outside the building to make sure that they each open fully and there is a clear path to the street.

- Hallways and stairways should be cleared of any material (bikes, mopeds, flower planters, etc.) that might cause obstructions to evacuation. Hallways and stairways are not the place for storage, not even temporarily.
- In many cases windows may be the only way out of the building in the event of a fire. This is especially true of sleeping rooms. Be sure to check that all windows open fully and easily.
- If your dwelling has theft-deterrent window bars, they should be equipped with a release mechanism from the inside, usually a foot or hand pull/push. Test this device to be sure it opens the window fully. The Berkeley Fire Department offers free testing of these release mechanisms.

Address Other Fire Hazards

Messy buildings are likely to have multiple fire hazards, so work with your neighbors to keep things in clean and orderly condition.

- Extension cords are fire hazards and should only be used temporarily. Use a power strip with circuit breaker protection (surge protector) if you must plug many devices into one outlet.
- Space heaters are not recommended. If they are used, be sure to follow manufacturer's instructions and keep them at least three feet from combustibles. The space heater must shut off automatically when it is tipped forward or backward. Do not plug space heaters into extension cords.
- Do not store combustible materials near a water heater, furnace, or other heat source.
- Candles are prohibited in dormitories and apartments operated by the campus or a campus affiliate.

- In a private residence, use only low-flame candles in a properly fitted non-combustible holder, placed well away from combustibles
- Never leave lighted candles unattended.

If you find an unsafe condition, report it!

- to the building manager/coordinator,
- residence hall staff,
- apartment manager,
- building owner,
- or directly to the Campus Fire Prevention Division within the Office of Environment, Health & Safety (EH&S) at 510-642-5995.

Know Common Causes of Fire

Cooking is the leading cause of fire injuries on college campuses, followed by careless smoking and arson. Always use caution when around fire (including candles, grills, fireworks, or burning embers) and dispose of fire properly.

- Never leave cooking unattended.
- Never smoke in bed.
- Report all arson threats.

Alcohol is implicated as a factor in about 50% of all fire fatalities. The number of fires in off-campus housing have overshadowed the number of all other campus-related fires in the United States.

House Parties & Special Events

Many fires start after a house party. If your house hosts a party, take care to reduce the likelihood of a fire by following these guidelines:

- Assign one or two persons to monitor

WHERE IS THE ALARM?

IF YOUR BUILDING HAS FIRE EXTINGUISHERS, OR FIRE ALARM HAND-PULL STATIONS, BE SURE YOU KNOW WHERE THEY ARE.

the event for safety. These monitors should stay sober during the event and be familiar with the building.

- Limit the number of guests, as overcrowding increases risk. A fire department permit may be required if the occupant load exceeds 150.
- After the event, look for discarded smoking materials throughout the house, including under furniture and between cushions.
- When the party is over, place all trash outside. Many fires are started by smoldering materials. Barbecue coals and fireplace ashes can stay hot up to three days and must be disposed of in metal containers.

What to do in case of fire.

Evacuate, THEN report!

If you become aware of a fire or hear a fire alarm, the first priority is getting out safely. Once clear of the building and in a safe location, call 9-1-1 or (510) 642-3333 from a cell phone to report the emergency.

- Take ALL fire alarms seriously and leave the building immediately. Do not stop.
- Feel door handles. If they are warm, do not open them. Find another way out of your room. If you can't get out, signal for help.
- Close doors behind you.
- Stay low when there is smoke, where the air is cleaner and cooler.
- Always use closest exit or stairway; never use elevators.
- If the alarm is on your way out, pull it!
- Once outside, do not go back in!
- If your clothes are on fire, stop, drop, and roll.
- Quickly cool any burns with water and seek medical attention.

REMEMBER:
IN CASE OF FIRE
OR SUSPECTED
FIRE, GET OUT!

THEN DIAL 9-1-1
OR (510) 642-
3333 FROM A
CELL TO REPORT
THE EMERGENCY.

What to Do for Personal Safety

Following these valuable safety guidelines will greatly increase your personal level of safety and can help protect personal and campus property. The campus and its environs are not immune to crime, but your awareness can help to reduce the incidence of crime.

Use Night Safety Services

Evening classes, study, research or work may keep you on campus late at night. UC Berkeley provides Night Safety Services after dark. All services are free to all. We get you there safely.

BearWALK Service

BearWALK is a student-run program. Walking escort is provided by a “CSO” or community service officer, a student employee of UCPD who is trained in non-confrontational safety techniques, is uniformed, and carries a police radio. CSOs will walk you from all campus locations (including residence halls) to destinations within service boundaries. This service is offered 365 days a year from dusk until 6 a.m.

Make a BearWALK request

Log in with your CalNet ID to make a BearWALK request at BearWALK.berkeley.edu, or download one of our mobile apps developed for Android or iPhone, or just call the BearWALK line (510) 642-9255 (2-WALK) and use the automated dispatch without a CalNet ID. Tell BearWALK where you are and where you want to go, give your name and phone number so we can contact you, then be ready to go at the estimated time. Make your request no earlier than 15 minutes before desired pick up. The last BearWALK Service request is taken at 5:45 a.m.

Pick Up Boundaries, Dusk to Dawn

Pick Up boundaries are: North, Cedar Street; N. East, Prospect/Hillside Place; S. East, Warring; South, Parker Street; West, Shattuck Avenue.

Drop Off Boundaries, After 2 AM

Drop-off boundaries in the early morning hours are: North, Hopkins/Yolo/Eunice; East, Hillside/Prospect; South, Ashby; West, Sacramento.

To make a BearWALK request, go to BearWALK.berkeley.edu

- To use the automated phone dispatch, or speak to an operator (press 0), call 510-642-WALK (9255)
- Learn more, get mobile apps, see maps of service boundaries at police.berkeley.edu/bearwalk.

Night Safety Shuttles (Free)

Night Safety Shuttles are an extension of daytime Bear Transit bus service, offered by Parking & Transportation (P&T) from about 7:30 p.m. until about 2:45 a.m. when school is in session. Shuttles go to the North and South sides, the residence halls and BART and also make regular stops at the undergraduate library. At BearWALK.berkeley.edu, you can track your bus on a map and estimate arrival at a stop near you. No login required.

- For more info on Night Safety Shuttles, visit pt.berkeley.edu

Tips for Nighttime Personal Safety

We strongly encourage you to use Night Safety Services when traveling to your location, but there may be times when you cannot.

When walking at night—

- Always be alert and aware of your surroundings.
- Plan your route for safety, and walk with friends or a group whenever possible.
- Use identified well-lighted and well-traveled routes.

If you sense danger—

- Move away from the threat. Cross the street and increase your pace.
- Join a group of people nearby.

If a threatening situation seems imminent—

- Yell, scream, or make a commotion to attract other people.
- Go to an open business.

Stay safe at the ATM

- Try to use the ATM during daylight hours.
- If you have to get cash at night, go with someone else and only use machines that are well-lit and visible from a major street.
- If you notice anything out of the ordinary, even if you have already started a transaction, cancel your transaction and leave.
- When entering your PIN (your secret number), shield the keypad.

- Always take any receipts and statements.
- Do not count or display money at the ATM.
- Do not give your PIN to anyone. A real police investigator or bank official will never ask for your PIN.

Protect Your Laptop

If a laptop is stolen, the loss of control of data could be just as disruptive as the loss of property. UCPD offers these recommendations to prevent laptop thefts, aid in the recovery of lost or stolen laptops, and control access to sensitive data.

PREVENT THEFT

Most thefts on campus are crimes of opportunity. Laptop theft is 99.9% preventable. Keep your laptop under your control at all times.

- Do not walk away from it, even for “a minute.” If you must sleep while you’re studying in the library, sleep on the laptop!
- Do not leave valuables in common areas or ask strangers to watch them for you.
- Do not leave laptops in plain sight, especially not in a vehicle.
- Secure your laptop in an office with quality hardware (cable locks, lockdown devices, storage cabinets).
- When you leave your room or office, shut curtains or blinds, lock doors, windows and take your keys with you.

LAPTOP SAFETY

BE SURE TO WRITE DOWN THE MANUFACTURER, MODEL AND SERIAL NUMBER OF YOUR LAPTOP AND FILE THIS INFORMATION.

IF YOU MUST STORE SENSITIVE DATA ON YOUR LAPTOP, USE ENCRYPTION TECHNIQUES TO PROTECT IT.

RECOVER PROPERTY

Report theft. When buying a new laptop, be sure to write down the manufacturer, model and serial number of your laptop and file this information. Engrave your driver’s license in a safe spot on the computer. These things will be useful to law enforcement in their efforts to recover property it is stolen.

Commercial software products are available which can track a laptop’s location through its connections to the Internet. Install and activate the software when the laptop is in your control, and it will be useful if a theft occurs.

Some laptop models purchased from Dell, Lenovo (IBM), HP, and other manufacturers may have Absolute Software’s Computrace, which embeds a tracking agent in the BIOS. The tamper-resistant agent remains active even if the hard drive is reformatted or replaced.

PROTECT DATA

The first line of defense in safeguarding sensitive data is to remove all unessential data from the laptop. If you must store sensitive data on your laptop, use encryption techniques to protect it. Many vendors offer encryption solutions. Utimaco Inc. and Absolute Software (Computrace) have partnered so their security solutions are compatible.

Some software allows you to remotely delete data on a protected laptop that has left your control. This data removal can be targeted at the file, directory and operating system levels. Computrace meets U.S. Department of Defense (short) standards for data removal.

Chancellor Birgeneau’s Message on Personal Data Security initiated an effort to define the method for appropriately encrypting data. The work to establish procedures is ongoing by UCOP. Please review these sites for more information

Prevent Identity Theft

PROTECT & PREVENT

Identity theft and identity fraud are terms used to refer to all types of crime in which someone wrongfully obtains and uses another person’s personal data in some way that involves fraud or deception, typically for economic gain. While nothing can guarantee that you won’t become a victim of identity theft, you can minimize your risk, and minimize the damage if a problem develops, by making it more difficult for identity thieves to access your personal information.

IDENTITY THEFT

YOU CAN MINIMIZE YOUR RISK OF IDENTITY THEFT BY PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION.

Harassing or Threatening Phone Calls

Harassing or annoying phone calls might include those made randomly by pranksters or made intentionally by people with whom you have been acquainted; calls made at hours when you are sleeping; frequent pointless calls; obscene calls; or calls where the caller says nothing.

Harrassing calls might be made with intent to defraud, but could also be made just to get a reaction from you. Most can be stopped if you use some simple techniques. Remember, your telephone is for your personal use and service. It is under your control and you are not obligated to talk to anyone.

- Hang up if the caller doesn't speak or you simply don't feel comfortable talking.
- If the caller asks, "Who is this?" or "What number have I reached?" don't answer. Instead ask, "Who are you trying to reach?" or "What number did you call?" If the call is not legitimate, that will probably end it.
- Under no circumstances should you give the names of others living with you to someone who doesn't already know them.
- Don't give out any information to anyone whom you don't recognize or who fails to give you satisfactory ID or affiliation. If the caller can't respond to your request for identification or does not respond immediately, hang up.

- If a caller persists after you have made it clear you don't want to talk to them, the simplest response is to hang up.
- If calls are frequent, begin a log of the dates and times you receive these calls. A log can be provided to law enforcement if necessary.

Note about threatening calls

If a caller threatens you, your residence or those with whom you live, notify UC Police immediately at the non-emergency number, (510) 642-6760.

Hate Crimes

(Reference §422.55 of the California Penal Code.)

A Hate Crime means any crime or attempted crime against the person or property of another individual or institution which in any way manifests evidence of hostility toward the victim because of his or her actual or perceived race, religion, disability, gender, nationality, sexual orientation or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. This includes, but is not limited to, threatening telephone calls, hate mail, physical assault, vandalism, cross burning, destruction of religious symbols, or fire bombings. Specific guidelines for hate crime determination are as follows:

- The hate crime must involve a specific target, such as a person or individual residence, house of worship, religious, ethnic, or gender-based organization, or business.
- Graffiti must be racial, ethnic, gender-based, religious, or homophobic in nature, using swastikas or other symbols and slogans of the KKK, Nazi party, or other hate groups, or involving the use of epithets.
- Bigotry must be the central motive for the attack, rather than economics, revenge, etc., as in other kinds of crime.
- Any assault against a person, in the absence of other apparent motivation, when initiated with racial, ethnic, religious, gendered or homophobic epithets, will be considered to be a hate crime.
- Vandalism to a house of worship, or to an ethnic, religious, or gay or lesbian organization will be considered a hate crime in the absence of evidence of other motives.
- Obscene or threatening phone calls, when containing racial, ethnic, religious, gender-based, or homophobic slurs, are considered hate crimes when it is determined that hate is the primary motivation for the call.

If you become a victim of a hate crime

If you become a victim of a hate crime, it is important that you report it immediately to the UCPD. If the crime is still in progress, make an emergency call, otherwise call UCPD's business line or send us a tip at cal@tipnow.com and stay anonymous. When reporting the incident, be sure to indicate that the crime is hate-motivated and provide the case officer with information that will support the classification.

Additional reporting options and support services are available through Gender Equity Rsc. Ctr. 510/642-4786 geneq.berkeley.edu/hate_crimes

Domestic Violence

If you have been hit, shoved, or physically harmed in any way, it is a crime. Domestic violence laws apply if the perpetrator is someone with whom you have had a child, is your spouse or domestic partner, or is someone you are dating. Unreasonable jealousy or distrust, verbal abuse, and the destruction of property are all symptoms of domestic violence. If you are experiencing domestic violence, you can take steps to protect yourself and recover.

What support is available?

University Health Services (UHS) has counselors who can help you access medical care and make a plan to be safe. They can provide counsel and emotional support while you consider your options, and will offer suggestions on ways to reduce the impact that violence has had on your daily life, such as making academic adjustments or finding alternative housing. For advice and assistance, contact UHS

- if faculty and staff

What happens if I call the police?

When an officer arrives at the scene of a domestic dispute and determines that a crime has been committed, the officer will make an arrest on probable cause that the suspect committed the offense. If a known suspect is in violation of a temporary restraining order, the officer may arrest the individual if they are still present when the officer arrives. In all cases, the officer will document the incident with a police report.

Can I get a temporary restraining order?

A Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) may be granted to you by a civil court in situations where there have been acts of violence resulting in physical injury or substantial emotional distress, whether past or present. If you obtain

In cases of domestic violence, or demonstrated financial need, the cost of filing a TRO is waived. Though the restraining order will be temporary, the court can, upon a hearing that shows good cause, grant a longer-term “Order After Hearing.”

Self-defense training for women

Women can get self-defense training on campus through the CalRAD program, a partnership between Gender Equity Resource Center, Office of Student Development, and UCPD. CalRAD’s Basic Physical Defense training follows the Rape Aggression Defense Systems model, a realistic approach that begins with tactics such as awareness, risk reduction and risk avoidance, then progresses to the basics of hands-on self-defense techniques. RAD aims to make self-defense a viable consideration for the woman who is attacked.

How long does it take? Nine to twelve hours, split into four sessions. The fourth session (the simulation), is optional, but is recommended.

How much does it cost? A nominal fee gets you a student manual, which lets you return to any RAD program site for refresher practice for free.

How do I sign up? To sign up, go to geneq.berkeley.edu, and follow the link in “Workshops and Classes.” Login using your CalNet ID.

What do I bring? Please wear loose, comfortable clothes to move in, and a bring a pen for taking lecture notes. Please feel free to bring a water and snacks for yourself.

For more information on the Rape Aggression Defense System, visit www.rad-systems.com.

Defensive Sprays

Any person 18 or older (and who is not otherwise legally prohibited) may purchase and carry a “tear gas” defensive spray. Pepper spray (oleoresin capsicum) is the most common type of defensive spray, available at many hardware, drug, or general merchandise stores. If you decide to carry a defensive spray, and you are ever in a situation where you must use it against an attacker, after using your spray you should immediately get out of the area. Run in the opposite direction of your attacker if possible. From a safe location, call to report the attack to your local law enforcement agency immediately.

Avoid misuse of tear gas

Use of tear gas or other defensive sprays except in self-defense is a crime. (California Penal Code §12403.7 [a] [7].) The local district attorney has the discretion to file misdemeanor or felony charges. Use of tear gas against a peace officer engaged in official duties is a felony. For more information on defensive sprays, including decontamination procedures, further legislative restrictions, and physical effects, search police.berkeley.edu for “pepper spray.”

C Sexual AssaultUniversity’s policy statement

The University of California, Berkeley is committed to creating and maintaining an environment in which all persons who participate in University programs and activities can work together in an atmosphere free of all forms of harassment, exploitation, or intimidation. Every member of the University community should be aware that such behavior is prohibited by law and by University policy and that the University will not tolerate sexual misconduct in any form, including acquaintance or date rape.

The University will take appropriate action to prevent, correct, and discipline behavior that is found to violate campus policy or regulations proscribing rape or sexual assault. Refer to the Rules & Policies chapter for full text of this procedure.

Campuswide prevention & education efforts

The University of California, Berkeley employs a multifaceted approach to preventing sexual assault. University Health Services has within it several units, each of which offer education and respond to sexual assaults. Social Services Health Promotion, collaborates with fellow UHS units as well as with other campus organizations to distribute the Policy and Procedures Regarding Rape and Sexual Assault; to provide educational workshops to campus faculty, staff, and students; and to develop and disseminate educational materials relating to the prevention of sexual assault. The Social Services Prevention Program provides in-service training for key campus officials, a peer educator program, educational workshops for students, educational materials, and consultation on prevention strategies to campus departments. The University of California Police Department’s Crime Prevention Unit works year round to give safety presentations that educate on personal safety. UCPD’s Threat Management Unit works collaboratively with UHS and others in the campus’ Behavior Risk Assessment Team to identify and respond to threats, including sexual assault.

The Gender Equity Resource Center sponsors prevention efforts, including the Sexual Harassment Advocacy Peer Educators (SHAPE), staffing and maintaining a resource library of community resources, and cosponsoring Sexual Assault Awareness Week and other prevention programs.

The Center for Student Leadership provides numerous prevention activities, including training for fraternities and sororities and other University-affiliated student groups.

Housing's Residential and Student Service Program (RSSP) also organizes a variety of prevention activities for their residents, including residence hall staff training.

If you are a student who has become a victim of sexual assault

It is important that you seek help immediately. The campus has provided a number of ways for you to get assistance, and you can choose the ones with which you feel most comfortable. Any of these offices will be sure to see you get the appropriate care, counseling and advice.

Immediate assistance In case of sexual assault

UC POLICE DEPARTMENT

1 Sproul Hall (510) 642-6760

Police officers have your well-being as their primary concern. All have had extensive training in handling sexual assault cases, and will treat you with respect and sensitivity. They will ensure that you are taken promptly to a physician for medical care and, if appropriate, the collection of vital evidence required for proof of criminal activity. The police can assist you if you file charges. You may consult with any of the campus resources listed below to learn more about how the police can assist you.

Tang Center, 2222 Bancroft Way

- Medical Care (510) 642-3188
for appointments 8 am–5 pm
(510) 643-7197 after hours
- Counseling (510) 642-6074
for appointments 8 am–5 pm

Clinicians at UHS are available to treat injuries and address other health matters, such as sexually transmitted diseases and pregnancy. They can coordinate with local hospitals for evidence collection, if appropriate.

UHS's Social Services provides confidential counseling for students who have been sexually assaulted, offering information about criminal and civil procedures, ways to maintain your safety, and advice about any housing or academic concerns. UHS's Social Services can provide vital support through your recovery process, helping both you and the friends, family, and others who may be concerned about you.

GENDER EQUITY RESOURCE CENTER

202 César E. Chávez Center
(510) 642-4786

The sexual harassment/sexual assault resource specialist is experienced in working with students who have been sexually assaulted and can inform you of your options and rights, advise you regularly of the status of your case, facilitate communication among the units involved, and help you throughout criminal and administrative proceedings.

Additional Resources

CAMPUS CLIMATE AND COMPLIANCE OFFICE

200 California Hall (510) 643-7985

The Campus Climate and Compliance Office is the campus resource for faculty, staff and students who may have experienced sexual harassment or assault, stalking, domestic violence, or sex discrimination, or who may be accused of these offenses. In a confidential setting, staff will advise on options for resolution that are available. Assistance is offered throughout a complaint-resolution process.

CENTER FOR STUDENT CONDUCT & COMMUNITY STANDARDS

2536 Channing Way (510) 643-9069

The Center for Student Conduct & Community Standards is responsible for investigating student misconduct, including incidents of sexual assault, and for charging student assailants.

STUDENT LEGAL SERVICES

102 Sproul Hall (510) 642-5171

The attorney for students is available by appointment to provide legal advice to registered students, but does not represent students.

STUDENT ADVOCATE'S OFFICE (SAO)

204 Eshleman (510) 642-6912

SAO offers representation, help, and advice to any student or student group involved in a dispute with the University. This executive, non-partisan office of the student government offers free and confidential assistance for conduct violations, grade disputes, enrollment issues, financial aid problems, establishment of residency, discrimination, harassment, and filing grievances.

C Alcohol and Drugs

Though student drinking at Cal is getting more moderate, both campus and city organizations are concerned about the impact of alcohol and other drugs on the health and safety of all members of the campus community. They are now using new, evidence-based strategies to address the party and drinking issues that do exist rather than accept them as “unchangeable” or “just a rite of passage”.

Although often viewed as a “social lubricant,” alcohol, if misused, can endanger your well-being, and have serious legal, health, and academic consequences. Use of alcohol can increase the risk of accidents, physical injury, or sexual assault. It can also cause social relations to quickly deteriorate, or exacerbate or induce psychological and behavioral problems.

Follow these guidelines

UCPD hopes all community members stay safe and act responsibly if they do choose to drink.

- Remember, the legal drinking age is 21. Underage drinking puts you at risk for sanctions.
- Set your own alcohol limit and stick to it. Pace your drinking.
- Designate a nondrinker in your group. This person can watch out for potential problems, including excessive drinking.

- Don’t leave your group of friends, and don’t put yourself at risk by leaving with a new acquaintance.
- Monitor your drink at all times. Do not drink punch or other drinks that you did not see made. Discard your drink if it has been out of your sight.

Assess your own alcohol use

Others can help you make decisions about your use, but the real responsibility is yours.

- Do I drink or use drugs to warm up for social events?
- Do I ever regret what I did or said while under the influence?
- Has my use ever affected my job, course work, or other responsibilities?
- Have others expressed concern about my use?
- Do I get drunk or high when I intended to stay sober?
- To get the same high, do I have to drink or use more than I used to?
- Do I have trouble remembering what happens when I drink or use?
- Do I feel uncomfortable if alcohol or drugs aren’t available at events?
- Do I drink or use after a disappointment or a difficult time?
- If you answer “yes” to these questions, alcohol or drugs may be giving you problems.

Notifying UCPD of a Missing Student

If you are concerned about the well-being of any residential student or have reason to believe that a student might be missing, you should contact UCPD immediately.

UCPD works closely with the Residential Student Service Programs (RSSP), International House, and the Berkeley Student Cooperative housing authorities and will begin its investigation immediately if a resident is suspected to be missing.

Students living in any of these residential facilities may designate a contact person to be notified in case the student is determined to be missing. This information is confidential and only authorized campus officials and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation may access it. (For those residential students who are under the age of 18 and not emancipated, their parent or guardian must be notified of the concern.) If any housing entity becomes aware that a residential student is missing, it will promptly notify UCPD, regardless of whether or not the student has a confidential contact person on file.

Statistics for Clery Compliance

In 1998, the federal government passed the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, or the Clery Act. This law requires colleges and universities receiving federal funding to annually compile and publish the reported instances of criminal activity on their campuses, along with campus safety policies and procedures, and to make a log of all daily police activity and deliver timely warnings of campus threats throughout the year. The purpose of the Clery Act is to provide students, families, and employees with accurate, complete, and timely information about campus safety so that they can make informed decisions. The University of California Police Department, Berkeley publishes this annual security report in compliance with the Clery Act, but also offers it as a resource guide, directing the reader to campus safety services and advising on crime prevention strategies.

Sources of Statistics

Statistics published are based on crime reports made by University of California Police Department and incorporate crime statistics received from outside police agencies, including the City of Berkeley Police Department. The Clery Act also mandates that we collect information regarding incidents from “campus security authorities”, or CSAs.

CSAs can include, in addition to UCPD officers, non-law enforcement entities such as those with responsibility for controlling access to buildings or facilities and those having “significant responsibility for student or campus activities.”

We solicit information, crime statistics, and comments from these campus departments and individuals

- Title IX Compliance Officer
- Gender Equity Resource Center
- Office of Student Development
- Center for Student Leadership (all advisors of student groups/Greeks)
- Center for Student Conduct and Community Standards
- Medical Services Clinic
- CARE Services
- Social Services
- Health Promotion
- University Health Services Administration
- Military Affairs Program
- Intercollegiate Athletics & Recreational Sports (team coaches, program coordinators)

- the University Office of the President
- LBNL Security & Emergency Operations Department

After receiving notice of incidents that may be reportable crimes under the Jeanne Clery Act, non-police campus security authorities will disclose these incidents directly to UCPD by filling out a collection form which allows labelling with correct crime definitions and requests specific information (e.g., date, location, nature of offense, and any police report numbers if applicable). Such reports maintain confidentiality unless the victim has given permission to document identifying information or permission for the police to investigate.

Licensed counselors (including certified sexual assault victim counselors) and campus clergy (pastoral counselors) are exempt from immediate reporting requirements. UC Berkeley urges that all crimes under campus jurisdiction be reported to the University of California Police Department and encourages counselors and clergy, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform those they counsel of procedures for reporting crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual security report.

Reporting Policies & Procedures

UCPD is responsible for gathering statistics on criminal activity on and near campus, identifying reportable crimes, and delivering reports of this data annually. The United States requires that crime reports be delivered to the FBI at the U.S. Department of Justice and made public, while the Clery Act requires reports be disseminated to the U.S. Department of Education and delivered to members of the campus community. Statistics that have been compiled are reported in different formats and categories depending upon legal requirements of each report. Reports made to the FBI, for instance, require the inclusion of different kinds of crimes from those required by the Jeanne Clery Act, while the Jeanne Clery Act requires its statistics to be reported from a wider geographic area than does the FBI (e.g., incidents on adjacent public property and student organization properties are Clery-reportable). The Clery Act also requires reports of student and employee disciplinary referrals in addition to arrests for drug, alcohol, and weapons offenses.

We begin in January to collect crime statistics from the previous calendar year by submitting written requests to various reporting entities.

When criminal activity occurs in locations outside of UCPD's jurisdiction (such as off-campus student organizations), a local agency will follow its own procedures to create a police report and case number for each incident. The agency will then, upon request from UCPD, submit its statistics. When data is received, UCPD compiles all data into tables and reviews for consistency and accuracy, most particularly to ensure the incidents listed are as much as possible congruent with FBI Uniform Crime Reporting classifications.

Federal regulations provide that all crime statistics be compiled based on Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) definitions. Upon making any incident report, police must determine whether a crime was committed and be sure it is correctly defined according to the FBI standard. An incident may not be included as a Clery crime statistic unless "the appropriate law enforcement officials conclude that the crime did occur with the same degree of certainty that they would require for purposes of reporting under the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting System."

Because incidents not reported to the police cannot be verified as crimes in the same manner that law enforcement agency reports can be verified, this report labels these statistics as "unverified offenses" rather than “offenses.” Despite careful analysis, some incidents included in these statistics may not have actually met the criteria for their incident type.

UCPD’s Response and Jurisdiction

While UCPD does not have primary responsibility for responding to most non-University properties (Non-campus), such as fraternities, sororities and some cooperative housing, UCPD does regularly collaborate with local law enforcement agencies to respond to crimes and incidents at these locations and to collate incident data for required statistical reporting under the Clery Act.

Crimes and incidents occurring at non-University properties, even those controlled or owned by officially recognized student organizations, should be reported to the local law enforcement agency, as they have primary responsibility for taking reports and handling calls for service there.

UCPD does have primary responsibility for the following cooperatives

- Cloyne Court
- Fenwick-Weavers
- Rochdale Village
- The Convent

UCPD and the University actively monitor and inquire about police responses to all off-campus locations of this type. UCPD has a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Berkeley Police Department signed by both chiefs every year, which allows for either agency to request assistance or assist as needed.

Making Police Reports into Statistics

When a crime or incident is reported to the University Police, an officer takes a report outlining the circumstances of the incident. That report is then forwarded to the Criminal Investigations Bureau (as appropriate), where a police detective reviews it and its evidence (if any).

In all instances of criminal activity, the UCPD works to determine the exact nature and perpetrator(s) of the crime so that we can develop a viable criminal case and forward it to the district attorney’s office for prosecution. In some cases involving lesser offenses, the Criminal Investigations Bureau will forward the case information to the Center for Student Conduct and Community Standards for adjudication through the campus’s disciplinary process. (Statistics for cases forwarded to the Center for Student Conduct which are offenses pursuant to the Clery Act will still appear in this report.)

Reporting agencies will compile statistics based on Clery Act definitions of offense categories and locations. Although every effort is made

CLERY ACT REQUIRES STATISTICS FOR THESE CRIMES

- HOMICIDE
- MANSLAUGHTER
- ROBBERY
- AGGRAVATED-ASSAULT
- SEX OFFENSES
- BURGLARY
- MOTOR-VEHICLE THEFT
- ARSON
- HATE CRIMES

to avoid duplication of reports received from non-police campus security authorities and other police agencies, an individual incident may be reported to us, and thus counted as a statistic, more than once.

Clery Requirements

Crime Categories

Under the Clery Act, the Berkeley campus must annually distribute statistics on the reported occurrences of the following offenses:

- Homicide
- Manslaughter
- Robbery
- Aggravated assault
- Sex offenses: forcible (which include rape, sodomy, rape with a foreign object, and forcible fondling [sexual battery])
- Sex offenses: non-forcible (incest and statutory rape)
- Burglary
- Motor vehicle theft
- Arson
- Hate crimes: (any crime that manifests evidence that the victim was selected because of their actual or perceived race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or their physical/mental disabilities.)

The Clery Act also requires disclosure of statistics for liquor law violations, drug law violations, and weapons possession. Reports of these violations are made differently, and reflect the total number of individuals arrested or referred for campus disciplinary action, rather than total number of incidents.

Liquor and Drug Violations

Liquor laws or ordinances

- prohibit the manufacture, sale, transporting, furnishing, or possessing of intoxicating liquor; maintaining unlawful drinking places; bootlegging; operating a still; furnishing liquor to a minor or intemperate person; using a vehicle for illegal transportation of liquor; drinking on a train or public conveyance; or any attempts to commit any of the foregoing violations. (Note: this list does not include public drunkenness and driving under the influence.)

State and local drug laws

- regulate possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs. The relevant substances include: opium or cocaine and their derivatives (morphine, heroin, codeine); marijuana; synthetic narcotics (Demerol, methadones); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (barbiturates, Benzedrine).

Weapons offenses

- are violations of laws or ordinances regulating weapons.
- statistics reflect the total number of individuals involved rather than total number of incidents.

Geographic Areas

These offenses must be reported according to their occurrence in the following locations, or geographic categories:

Campus property: (i) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and (ii) Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified in paragraph (i) of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).
Housing: Residence halls or other University-owned residences. These statistics are a subset of Campus property statistics.
Public property: All public property including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities that are within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.
Noncampus property: (i) Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or (ii) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Time Span

Statistics in this year's annual security report reflect incidents that were reported in 2007, 2008 and 2009. Statistics for the current calendar year will appear in the report for the following academic year.

Tables of Statistics

Tables Per Reporting Areas

The following tables show incidents described above per geographic area. Statistics categorized as "Campus" include all residential hall (Housing) crimes. The "Housing" statistics are also reported separately to be more useful to parents and students.

Properties not contiguous to the main campus are classified as "Noncampus" under the Clery Act. University Village, Albany (UVA) statistics are included in the Noncampus statistics. The University of California Office of the President (UCOP) is reported as Noncampus property of the UC Berkeley campus.

See the complete list of noncampus properties for which statistics are gathered on page 41.

BOUNDARIES OF "THE BOX"

E—PROSPECT
W—SHATTUCK
N—VIRGINIA
S—DWIGHT WAY

“The Box” — UCPD Crime Alert Reporting Area

Before 2004, UCPD defined the public area contiguous to campus to include several blocks surrounding the campus. The Clery Act has since refined its definition of contiguous public areas, and now requires that campuses report only crimes that occur on public sidewalks adjacent to university property, and on the street and the sidewalk across the street from campus buildings. The statistics we report as “Public” are in accordance with this Clery Act definition. The Police Department at University of California, Berkeley, feels strongly that the campus community should be aware of the crime activity in the broader vicinity of this urban campus. Therefore, UCPD offers this set of statistics for the wider territory, which includes the Clery-required areas, for comparison purposes. See the Reporting Areas Map on inside back cover of this booklet for boundaries of “The Box”.

UCDC

The University of California Washington Center (UCDC) is being reported as a branch campus of the Berkeley campus. UCDC produces its own Annual Security Report, collecting crime statistics from the Washington DC Police Department and from its campus security authorities. UCDC is a multi-campus instructional and research center that provides undergraduate students, graduate students and faculty from many of the University of California campuses opportunities to research, work and study in the Nation’s capital. UCDC houses programs from the Berkeley, Davis, Irvine, Los Angeles, Riverside, San Diego, Santa Barbara, and Santa Cruz campuses.

UCDC is located at 1608 Rhode Island Avenue, NW, Washington, DC, 20036.

About Employee Violations

The Clery Act requires the reporting of all employee arrests and disciplinary actions for drug, liquor and weapons violations occurring in the Clery-reportable areas. In the year 2010 there were no employee violations.

2009 Liquor Law Violations Data

Last year, UC Berkeley incorrectly reported 85 public intoxication cases in the 2009 Campus “Unverified” stats. The correct 2009 data is now shown.

Disclaimers about all statistics

Some incidents listed may not actually meet the criteria for their incident type. Although every effort has been made to avoid duplication between reports made by non-police campus security authorities and police, individual incidents may be reported multiple times within the same calendar year.

Campus Community Members

Campus community members are defined as

- those persons present at, and those persons regularly frequenting any place associated with an institution of higher education.

Those places include

- administrative and educational offices;
- laboratories;
- satellite facilities owned or utilized by the institution for educational instruction, business, or institutional events;
- and public areas contiguous to any campus or facility that are regularly frequented by students, employees, or volunteers of the campus.

Rules and Policies

Members of the Cal community come from all over the state—and the world. While in California, and on the UC Berkeley campus specifically, you are required to obey all applicable laws, which include state, federal, and municipal codes. As a Berkeley student, you are also required to adhere to campus codes, rules, and regulations.

We hope you will help contribute to the safety of the campus by learning about these rules and regulations.

RULES OF CONDUCT IN CAMPUS BUILDINGS

The buildings on the Berkeley campus are for appropriate use and enjoyment by students, faculty, staff, and visitors. The following policies have been established to promote the safety and security of all occupants and visitors: Follow all posted building rules restricting use or access.

- Duplicating or distributing keys or card keys without authorization is a violation of the Campus Access Control Policy, and is punishable under section 469 of the California Penal Code.
- Assisting unauthorized access to buildings or propping open exterior doors, against building security policies, is a violation of the Campus Access Control Policy.
- Lodging overnight, except in residential facilities or for academic purposes, is prohibited.
- Adhere to all campus fire safety rules (see page 54) including prompt, orderly evacuation in case of alarm. Do not block building entrances.
- Intentionally initiating a false fire alarm is a violation of California Penal Code Section 148.4(a) punishable by a $1,000 fine and/or up to a one-year jail sentence.
- Disrupting classroom, administrative, or other University-sponsored or approved activities can result in citations by UCPD, enforcement by the Center for Student Conduct and Community Standards, and/or expulsion from the campus.
- Smoking in buildings (except for private residences) is prohibited by campus policy and Berkeley Municipal Code. When smoking outside, keep 20' distance from entrance to ensure that tobacco smoke does not enter a public building.

- Riding mopeds, bicycles, skateboards, roller blades, or skates is prohibited in buildings or on walkways where hazards could be created by their use. In accordance with the fire marshal policy, vehicles may not be stored in any public spaces, hallways, corridors, or stairwells, or attached to railings. Bicycles may be stored in non-public space sanctioned, or authorized, in buildings by departments or building coordinators/managers.
- Animals (except laboratory animals or those assisting disabled persons, or as otherwise authorized by departments or building coordinators/managers) are not to be brought into buildings.
- Use of campus or departmental bulletin boards must be authorized by the department, or by the building coordinator/manager.
- Tampering, misuse, abuse, or destruction of fire protection equipment or other University property is a violation of Penal Code Sections 148.4 and 594(b).

BICYCLE RULES AND POLICIES

On the UC Berkeley campus, pedestrians have the right-of-way at all times, except where signage directs pedestrians to give the right of way to bikes. Bicyclists can ride everywhere on campus roadways, paths and courtyards except the Dismount Zone—defined as Sproul and Dwinelle Plazas and Sather Road, during the period of peak pedestrian traffic, 8am-6pm, M-F— when and where bicyclists must walk their bicycles or be subject to citation. It is possible to reduce the fine of this violation to $50, by attending a two hour Bicycle Education and Safety Training (BEST) class within 60 days of citation.

Bicyclists are subject to the same rules of the road as motor vehicle drivers. The maximum speed limit on roadways is 25 mph, except where posted otherwise. In driveways and parking lots it is 10 mph. Within 10 feet of a pedestrian, 5 mph.

At UC Berkeley and in the City of Berkeley, bicycles are required to have a California Bicycle License. If UCPD stops you while riding a bicycle without a valid license, you could be subject to citation. Additionally, licensing your bicycle increases the likelihood of recovery in case of theft. A new license is valid for three years. Renewals, also available, are valid for up to three years. Bike licensing is offered regularly by UCPD. Times and locations will be posted at police.berkeley.edu/bike.

Theft prevention tips

Bicycle theft is a tremendous problem on college campuses, and UC Berkeley is no exception. Bicycles and bicycle parts, including “quick release” seats and wheels, are in big demand, and thieves have means to take them. Lock your bike to a bicycle rack, (allow “egress”). Use a high-quality “U” shaped lock, not just cables or chains, or low quality U-locks. Lock your bicycle through the frame and both wheels. Lock all free parts of bike or take them with you. Avoid leaving your bicycle locked outside overnight. Before leaving your bicycle, give the lock a tug to ensure it is secured.

Riding safely

- Always ride with traffic.
- Signal your turns and moves.
- Ride in a straight line, to the right of faster-moving traffic.
- Ride as far to the right as is safe, but not so far that you’ll hit garbage cans or opening car doors.
- If there is a bike lane, use it. Wear a bicycle helmet. A headlight for night riding use is required by law. A red rear reflector, two side reflectors on each wheel and reflector pedals should be used. Light-colored, reflective clothing is also a good idea.

C ALCOHOL AND DRUG LAWS & CAMPUS POLICIES

Campus policy and state law forbid the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use, or sale of alcoholic beverages or controlled substances by employees and students in the workplace, on University premises, at official University functions, or on University business, as specified in the following sources

- University of California Policy on Substance Abuse (11/1/90)
- The Code of Student Conduct, University of California, Berkeley.
- The Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 (Public Law 100-690, Title V, Sub D)
- The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Acts of 1989
- The California State Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1990
- The Controlled Substances Act 21, United States Code 812, and by regulation at 21, Code of Federal Regulations 1308.

Copies of campus documents listed above are available at the reference desk of the Main Library, at the Center for Student Leadership, at the Center for Student Conduct & Community Standards and at the offices of Human Resources, Academic Personnel. Find other documents at the Government Documents Department, Rm. 350, Main Library. Learn more about academic, legal and financial consequences of alcohol-related violations at partysafe.berkeley.edu.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE STOPPED BY A UCPD OFFICER

If a police officer approaches to speak with you, that does not necessarily mean that you have broken the law. Officers may need to stop someone if

- they have reason to believe you witnessed a crime
- your appearance is similar to that of a wanted or missing person
- you are in distress, or danger, or unable to care for yourself.

An officer can stop you to investigate any of the above, indicate that you are not free to leave, and take any necessary enforcement action. This type of stop is called a “detention”. A detention is not an arrest, but if you try to leave, the officer can prevent you from going. Some other examples of detentions and their reasons, which can result in an officer writing a citation

- The stop of a car and driver for failing to obey a traffic law
- The stop of a person for possession of an open container of alcohol in public
- The stop of a person matching the description of a prowler

Most officers wear a distinctive uniform and drive a clearly marked police vehicle, but there are times plain-clothes police might identify themselves to you with an official badge and identification card. If you are not certain that someone in plain clothes who stopped you is a police officer, you may ask if another officer or a supervisor can come to your location.

During a detention, officers are very alert to your behavior and mannerisms, primarily out of concern for their own safety. Every year a number of law enforcement officers across the country are injured or killed during “routine” stops. We hope that by knowing this, you’ll do these things to make any detention a faster, safer and more positive experience.

- Remain calm and avoid sudden movements
- Keep your hands where they can be seen by the officer and tell the officer what you are doing before you reach into your clothing or containers
- Follow the officer’s instructions
- Be honest and forthcoming

If you are in a car

- When you see the officer’s red light and/or hear the siren, safely pull over to the right side of the road, parallel with the flow of traffic
- Remain in your vehicle unless the officer advises otherwise
- Encourage any passengers to remain calm and cooperative

The officer will normally tell you the reason you were stopped, ask for your identification and ask questions or take other actions related to the investigation. If you are unsure about something you should ask for clarification. The officer might not have the ability to immediately address your concern, in which case you should follow instructions and wait for another opportunity to ask.

In most cases, the officer will attempt to resolve any obvious problems, provide advice or a warning, and will document the stop on a police report or “field interview card” (FI card). Reports and field interview cards are kept on file, but do not affect your record in the same way that being charged with a crime would.

We hope these guidelines will help alleviate any confusion and stress in the case of a detention. If you have a question or concern about UCPD procedures or the actions of an officer, please contact the department and ask to speak to a patrol supervisor. You are also welcome to contact the department if you feel an officer was particularly helpful or professional.

FREE SPEECH & PUBLIC ASSEMBLY

UC Berkeley has a tradition of being an open forum for the expression of political and social ideas. While the University and its Police Department recognize the rights of individuals to engage in constitutionally protected free speech and public assembly, this activity must be conducted in a reasonable and responsible manner.

People who choose to exercise their freedom of speech or right to public assembly should understand that such rights are not unlimited. When the activity infringes on the rights of others or interferes with University business, it loses constitutional protection and may become a violation of law or University rules and regulations.

People who engage in activity that is in violation of the law or University rules must understand that there are consequences for such action(s). These may include arrest and prosecution for criminal law violations and University action.

The University may pursue Student Conduct or other administrative procedures.

Campus Life and Leadership has copies of the Campus Rules and Regulations, which explain the “time, place and manner” rules governing public forums and rallies. Organizations can meet with a representative from the Police Department and Office of Student Life to discuss the nature of their demonstration activities and be informed of their responsibilities and options.

Organizations should appoint easily recognizable monitors with sufficient numbers and authority to control the activities of the group.

Groups should appoint a spokesperson to liaise with the police to enhance cooperation and communication.

In the event of misdemeanor arrests, demonstrators may be cited and released according to established police procedures. If the charge additionally requires booking at a local police station, those arrested can expect the process to take at least 3–4 hours.

To meet release conditions, demonstrators should:

1. Be at least 18 years of age
2. Possess a valid California picture identification
3. Have no outstanding traffic or arrest warrant(s)
4. Possess no weapons or contraband
5. Follow the directions of the arresting officer(s)
6. Not engage in non-compliant or active resistance

7. Not threaten or fight with the arresting officer(s)

8. Not engage in any criminal activity (assaultive behavior, property destruction)

If a demonstrator is arrested for a felony violation, or an assault on a police officer, that person may be ultimately booked into the Alameda County jail system. If this occurs, the detention time, bail, and court expenses could mount substantially, including a felony arrest record that will follow the student for life.

The following abbreviated California State Penal Codes are some of the most commonly violated in demonstration situations:

834a PC Resistance to arrest. If a person has knowledge, or by the exercise of reasonable care, should have knowledge, that he is being arrested by a peace officer, it is the duty of such person to refrain from using force or any weapon to resist such arrest.

148 PC Resisting/obstructing a police officer. Willfully resisting, delaying, or obstructing any public officer in the discharge or attempted discharge of their duties.

407 PC Unlawful assembly. Whenever two or more persons assemble to do an unlawful act, or to do a lawful act in a violent, boisterous or tumultuous manner.

409 PC Failure to disperse. Remaining present at the place of any riot, rout or unlawful assembly, after having been lawfully warned to disperse.

602(k) PC Trespassing with purpose to injure. Entering any lands for the purpose of injuring any property or property rights or with the intention of interfering, obstructing or injuring any lawful business.

602.1 PC Obstructing or intimidating public agencies or customers. Intentionally interfering with any lawful business open to the public by obstructing or intimidating those attempting to carry on the business, or their customers. Refusing to leave the premises after being requested to do so by the owner, the owner's agent or by a peace officer acting at the request of the owner or agent.

647c PC Obstruction of street, sidewalk, or other public place. Obstructing the free movement of any person on any street, sidewalk or other public place or in any place open to the public.

C CAMPUS PROCEDURES FOR RESPONDING TO SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual assault prevention, education, policy, and procedures are governed by the Berkeley Campus Student Policy and Procedures Regarding Sexual Assault and Rape, which outlines prevention and education programs and details procedures the campus follows in responding to reports of sexual assault allegedly committed by students. It assumes that the incident occurred on or near campus (at an official University function or on University property). However, many of the procedures and services described here also apply if the incident happens off-campus or if the individual reporting the assault is not a student.

When an incident is reported to any unit providing sexual assault resources on campus, the person to whom the report is made shall inform the student of her or his option to notify local law enforcement authorities, including the UC Police Department. The student shall also be informed of the importance of preserving evidence required for proof of possible criminal activity, and of the availability of the institutional personnel to assist the student in notifying the authorities of the incident, upon the student’s request. Finally, the student shall also be informed of the existing on- and off-campus counseling, mental health, and other student services as outlined below.

A. The campus provides confidential and trained assistance to individuals reporting a sexual assault. Primary assistance is provided through Sexual Assault Prevention, Medical and Counseling Services at the University Health Services. Sexual Assault Prevention, Medical and Counseling Services offer both immediate and ongoing response to students, including confidential crisis counseling and assistance and advocacy with the initial medical evaluation, criminal and civil procedures, and academic and housing issues. The University Health Services also provides general medical care for students who report being sexually assaulted, and other services including pregnancy and sexually transmitted disease testing, and treatment for injuries sustained during an assault.

B. The Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault Resource Specialist at the Gender and Equity Resource Center provides initial crisis intervention and support throughout the complaint process as the student makes use of other campus services. The Center serves as a “home base” for students who report being sexually assaulted; it does not provide counseling therapy but provides information, advocacy, and support throughout the administrative process following a sexual assault.

C. Campus housing provides a number of resources. Its Residential & Student Service Programs staff have received training in responding to students who are assaulted, including providing initial support, helping students access appropriate campus services, handling housing issues, and maintaining a healthy living environment in the residence unit as a whole.

D. Off-campus resources include local physicians, hospitals such as Highland, community resources like Bay Area Women Against Rape, and local law enforcement authorities, such as the Berkeley and Oakland City Police Departments.

If the student is willing to report the incident to the UC Police Department, she or he is informed that physical evidence can be collected at the same time as medical care is provided, but that medical evidence for a criminal prosecution cannot be collected without a report being made to the police. Under these circumstances, the student is given instructions (detailed in Appendix) so that important physical evidence can be preserved. In instances where police authorize, the state will assume the cost of the medical exam.

Although the student is not required to notify any law enforcement authority regarding the incident, the person to whom the report is made shall contact the UC Police Department to inform them that a sexual assault may have occurred. The UC Police Department in turn shall notify the Title IX Compliance Officer, who is responsible for coordinating the campus' response to the incident. Licensed mental health workers, who learn about sexual assault as part of their professional roles, are required to maintain confidentiality. Hence only anonymous summary statistical information will be reported.

After the UC Police Department is contacted, a uniformed officer will be dispatched to take the report.

A. A police report will be taken by a UC Police Officer who accompanies the student to the hospital. At the request of the student, a friend, family member, or other designated person may be present.

B. The officer who accompanies the student to the hospital will advise the student regarding hospital procedures and the availability of assistance through University Health Services.

C. A UC Police Detective shall be assigned to further investigate the criminal allegations and explain the legal process to the student. The Detective shall present a completed written investigation to the District Attorney's office for review and filing of criminal charges.

If the student is unwilling to report the matter to the police or to be transported to the hospital by the police, she or he is then urged to seek assistance immediately from University Health Services for coordination of medical care and assistance, counseling, and other available support alternatives. The student is also informed that she or he may seek the assistance of the Sexual Harassment/ Sexual Assault Resource Specialist at the Gender and Equity Resource Center for advocacy support and assistance throughout the complaint process.

The student may request changes in her or his academic or living situation or in that of an alleged assailant, after the student has made a report of an assault, and the campus shall grant any reasonable request for such change.

When a student reports being sexually assaulted by another student, the Center for Student Conduct & Community Standards, at the direction of the Title IX Compliance Officer, shall conduct a timely investigation of the allegations in the case and interview any witnesses as needed. The determination of whether to proceed with charges in a sexual assault case is the joint decision of the Center for Student Conduct & Community Standards and the Title IX Compliance Officer, in consultation as needed with campus legal counsel, with final authority residing with the Title IX Compliance Officer. When formal charges are brought against the accused student by the University, the case shall either go to a hearing for adjudication or a settlement agreement shall be negotiated.

The individual charged with sexual assault is entitled to due process and will be given notice and a full opportunity to respond to the allegation made against her or him. The individual can seek representation, may have the same opportunity as the student who reported being assaulted to have a non-participating observer present during the proceedings, and is entitled to information about the campus policy on rape and sexual assault and the procedures that will be followed to address the issues.

If disciplinary sanctions are imposed by the Dean of Students, the student who reports being sexually assaulted is informed of the outcome, and the charged student may appeal the action as set forth in the Campus Code of Student Conduct.

When a student who reports being sexually assaulted files charges with the UC Police Department, the criminal investigation and the campus judicial investigation are coordinated but independently conducted, occurring simultaneously or sequentially, on a case-by-case basis. Full text of this policy is available at the Campus Climate & Compliance Office website at ccac.berkeley.edu.

HAZING LAWS AND POLICY

UC Berkeley is fortunate to be a campus where incidents of hazing are rare. We have our own comprehensive definition of hazing, broader and more detailed than the State’s, and our own strict disciplinary protocols. Nevertheless, despite our University’s good record regarding hazing, everyone connected with the University must know the risks and penalties. As of January 1, 2007 acts of hazing, formerly a misdemeanor, may be punished as a felony. Called “Matt’s Law”, the new statute (§245.6) of the California Penal Code) also expanded who can be held responsible for hazing. Prosecutors now have the authority to bring charges against any person or organization (e.g., fraternity officials/chapters, nonenrolled students) involved in hazing. Even those people only tangentially related to hazers—group officers and leaders, parents, coaches, faculty, staff, regents, the University itself—can be liable in civil suits brought by hazing victims or their families. Section 245.6 of the California Penal Code, which went into effect on January 1, 2007, reads: 245.6. (a) It shall be unlawful to engage in hazing, as defined in this section. (b) “Hazing” means any method of initiation or preinitiation into a student organization or student body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an education institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury to any former, current, or prospective student of any school, community college, college, university, or other education institution in this state. (c) A violation of this section that does not result in serious bodily injury is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100), nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both. (d) Any person who personally engages in hazing that results in death or serious bodily injury as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 243 of the Penal Code, is guilty of either a misdemeanor or a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison. Anyone with any information regarding allegations or incidents of hazing should contact the Dean of Students at 510-642-6741. Full text of this policy available at leginfo.ca.gov/calaw

DISCIPLINARY ACTION PROCEDURES

Responsibility for pursuing campus disciplinary actions involving students rests with the Center for Student Conduct & Community Standards, which reports to the Dean of Student Life. The office is also responsible for notifying the UC Police Department and the Title IX Compliance Officer of any allegations of sexual assault. At the direction of the Title IX Compliance Officer, the Center for Conduct &

Community Standards will conduct an investigation of the allegations in the case and interview any witnesses. The campus has jurisdiction over offenses by students that occur on University property (such as classrooms and residence halls), in other locations in the immediate vicinity of the campus (such as nearby fraternity and sorority houses, the student co-ops, and apartment buildings), during official University functions, and off-campus. Pending a formal disciplinary hearing, the campus may take a variety of administrative measures against a charged student, including restriction of privileges and services, interim suspension, and exclusion from certain campus areas, such as classrooms and residence facilities. To prevent further conflict between the parties, the campus may use administrative reassignment procedures to move individuals to another residence hall or complex, limit access to a specific hall or complex during the course of a campus or criminal investigation, or make academic accommodations as appropriate for either party. Normal Student Conduct procedures will be followed in resolving allegations of sexual misconduct, with the following exception: a hearing in a case concerning allegations of sexual misconduct may be closed to the public if the hearing body determines that the privacy rights of a witness, including those of the individual who reports being assaulted, may otherwise be jeopardized. Disciplinary actions that may be imposed from the Student Conduct process may include but are not limited to: written warning, disciplinary probation, loss of privileges and exclusion from activities, exclusion from areas of the campus, restitution, University service, monetary fines, records hold, suspension, dismissal, deferral or withholding of degree, revocation of degree previously conferred, stay of sanction, or other actions.

C SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION

Megan's Law

State of California law requires sex offenders to register with the police in the jurisdiction in which they reside, and also that they specifically register with UCPD if they are employees, (including contractors) of the University, attend classes, frequent any area associated with the University, or live in University housing. Members of the campus community may, by appointment with UCPD, view information gathered about campus-affiliated registered offenders if they

- Are a member of the UC Berkeley campus community
- Are at least 18 years of age
- Have a valid California driver's license or identification card
- Are not a registered sex offender
- Can clearly state their reason for viewing the Campus registered sex offender data file (mere "curiosity" is not a valid reason to view the information.)

Campus community members will be required to establish their campus community connection to UC Berkeley, show a photo ID, and sign a statement attesting that he or she is not a registered sex offender, understands the purpose of the release of information, and understands that it is unlawful to use the information obtained to commit a crime against any sex offender registrant or engage in illegal discrimination or harassment of any registrant. The statement is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under the Public Records Act. A copy of the statement may be made available to law enforcement agencies for law enforcement purposes.

For more information about the Megan’s Law Data Program, the campus affiliated registered sex offender data, or to make an appointment to view the data, contact the Police Department Records Unit at (510) 642-6760.

Hours for campus community member access to the campus-affiliated data are Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8–10 am and 1–3 pm. Walk-up requests will be accommodated at the discretion of the Police Department. Viewing time is limited to 30 minutes, except with the approval of the Police Department.

The general public can view all sex offender registration information (not just campus affiliates) at the Megan’s law website at www.meganslaw.ca.gov/

PERSONNEL COMPLAINTS

(Re: UCPD Officers or Civilian Employees)

If you have a concern about a police action or the actions of a specific police employee, you may submit feedback through the police website, or you may file a formal complaint. A complaint may be made at any time to any police department employee, and it will normally be referred to the Duty Supervisor. The supervisor will try to understand the issues you raise, answer any questions or explain the actions to the extent possible, and document your concerns. Depending on the circumstances, they will either investigate immediately or forward a report to the Complaint Investigation Unit in the Office of the Chief. The time limit for filing a complaint is 30 calendar days from the date of the alleged incident. Sexual harassment allegations will be accepted up to 90 calendar days after the alleged incident.

Complaints may also be made at the offices of the ASUC Student Advocate, the Office of Community Relations, Center for Student Leadership, Campus Climate & Compliance, and the Vice Chancellor for Administration. All complaints will be forwarded immediately to the Chief of Police and to the Chair of the Police Review Board.

Separate from the formal process, the campus ombudspersons are also available to assist with informal resolution of complaints. Assistance provided by the Ombuds office is separate from the formal process. Complaints or inquiries can also be made via email.

The purpose of the Complaint Investigation Unit is to assure that complete, fair, and impartial investigations are made of citizen complaints.

The University Police Review Board is independent from UCPD and is available to hear appeals from the UCPD Complaint Investigation process. Contact the Chancellor’s Office at (510) 642-3100 for more information.

CAMPUS VIDEO SECURITY APPLICATIONS POLICY NOTE

The Campus has three (3) video monitoring cameras located on blue light phones in Eucalyptus Grove/Grinnell Pathway. The cameras were installed in 1998 because of a high incidence of violent crime in that location.

INFORMATION FROM THE OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY (EH&S)

ASBESTOS ON CAMPUS

Intact, sealed, and undisturbed asbestos-containing materials are not a hazard. The University maintains an active Asbestos Operations & Maintenance Program through its Office of Environment, Health & Safety (EH&S) and Physical Plant-Campus Services (PP-CS). This page is an excerpt of the full notification.

What is asbestos and where is it?

Asbestos is a common, naturally occurring group of fibrous minerals previously used in a variety of building materials. While asbestos fibers are still used in some building materials, the Berkeley campus prohibits the use of asbestos-containing materials in all new construction and renovation projects. Asbestos on campus is located in certain pipe insulation, doors, textured paints and plasters, structural fireproofing, floor tiles, adhesives, and roofing. Asbestos fiber release could result from a fire, earthquake, other natural disasters, or when someone unknowingly damages or disturbs asbestos-containing material.

How much exposure is dangerous?

Significant and long-term exposure to asbestos from activities that directly disturb asbestos containing materials (such as asbestos mining) can lead to a variety of respiratory diseases, including asbestosis, lung cancer, and Mesothelioma (cancer of the lung lining).

What is the risk on campus?

The asbestos health risk posed to University employees is extremely low due to the campus' Asbestos Operations & Maintenance Program which dictates safe removal of damaged, friable (easily broken by touch) asbestos, in-place management of undamaged asbestos containing materials, and asbestos abatement during construction and renovation.

What if people are working in my building?

To avoid potential exposure, only trained and state certified employees may remove, drill, bore, or in any way disturb asbestos-containing construction material.

Any asbestos that might be disturbed is properly removed prior to the construction or renovation work. Asbestos removal and encapsulation work is performed by asbestos licensed contractors under specifications developed jointly by PP-CS and EH&S. Work conducted by the PP-CS personnel is conducted according to the program requirements.

Where can I find more information?

During business hours, contact Chuck Rose, PP-CS Asbestos Coordinator, 2000 Carleton Street (643-2652) or Gary Bayne, EH&S Construction Health and Safety Specialist (643- 9476). For an on-line version of this notice, visit ehs.berkeley.edu, search "asbestos".

C FIRE SAFETY ON CAMPUS ANNUAL REPORT

Public Law 110-315 states that all Title IV eligible institutions participating in any Title IV program and that maintain on-campus student housing facilities must publish an Annual Fire Safety Report, maintain a fire log, and report fire statistics to the Secretary of Education. A printed copy can be obtained by contacting EH&S at (510) 642-5995 or can be downloaded at <http://ehs.berkeley.edu/fireprev.html>
